GIANT SLUGGERS HAVE NO RESPECT FOR AL MAMAUX

VICTORS GIVE CLASSY . FIELDING EXHIBITION

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Al Mamaux, the millionaire kid of the Pirate flinging staff, tried to avenge the trouncing the Giants handed him in eleven rounds on the banks of the Harlem last Saturday, but it was a poor attempt. McGraw's reformed sluggers had no respect for Albert's reputation. They shot him up for thirteen hits, adding up to nineteen bases. If any ill luck went with the thirteen hits. Mamaux got it all, as the Giants didn't act unlucky. They hammered out a 6 to 2 victory on the Polo Grounds yesterday, which gave New York five out of the six games of the Pirate set, a division quite satisfactory to John Joseph Mc-

Thursday the locals have won seven out of eight games in Harlem. Prior to that they had won only seven games in their own yard all season. The Callahans will be welcome guests at the Harlem pasture for another week if While the Glants were thumping Ma-naux to all the corners and crevices of the Polo yard a Pirate war corre-epondent remarked sadly: "Gee, that's funny; I never saw Al with more stuff in his life."

That reminds us of a little story about That reminds us of a little story about LaRue Kirby, a young pitcher the Giants had a few years ago who later turned outfielder and was a big hitter in the Southern Association, but proved a bloomer in the Feds. After the Giants had the 1912 pennant cinched McGraw put Kirby in against Boston. The Braves pounded him for five hits in the first inning, after which he settled, and the Giants won, 6 to 5.

The Buccos were trimmed yesterday by a near Pirate, Rube Benton. The left handed Rube came still closer to being a sailor on Barney Dreyfuss's fleet than George Sisler, the world's champion near Pirate. Rube actually won a game for Pittsburg in the uniform of the Pirate man-o-war, but Gov. Tener crossed the game out, and sent him to the Giants. Clever Work by Glants.

The Glants played smart all around ball to-day and their fielding matched their hitting. Fletcher, who can lick the Plrates one handed any day in the week shore like a Hone diamond at veek, shone like a Hope diamon thort, while Herzog, Robertson Kauff also made pretty plays. Joe Schultz, who is not an infielder by trade, but by adoption, robbed Robertson of a hit which deprived Dave of a record of four bingles in four times at bat. New York did not hide its punch from Mamaux. The Giants started after him early. Burns crossing the plate in the first inning. George pushed a double to centre and ran to third on Doyle's sacrifice. Cobb would have scored on this, as not a Pirate covered the plate when Two more athletes wearing the livery the National Exhibition Company of the National Exhibition Company of the National Exhibition Company of the desired their spikes into the plate in the fourth. After Hans Lobert's cousin, Joe Schultz, pushed back the right field wall so as to be able to spear Robertson's liner with one hand, Kauff walked, and Merkle pushed Ben to third with a single to left. Fred took second on the futile peg to get Benjamin Michael. Fletcher had the hit in his bat which scored the pair; Artie shook a single into centre pair; Artie shook a single into centre

There was more Giant scoring in the fifth, when Charley Herzog crossed the pan. Herzy hit a triple, which wasn't exactly simon pure. It was a low liner to left, which Schulte misjudged and then permitted to roll to the fence. Robertson shot a single by McCarthy which had smoke on it. Herzog scoring.

The Pirates perked up a bit in the seventh. Schulte opened the inning with the second Smoketown hit and scored when Hinchman broke up a fanning bee among some subs in right field with a triple. The Pirates had little cooperation, as Bill hung around third while four batters tried in vain to score him. Schultz walked, but the three others were easy outs. The Giants quickly got this run back on Burns's triple and Doyle's sacrifice fig.

APPEAL FOR HELP UNLUCKY FOR REDS

With Huston and Donovan, Daubert Drives Pfeffer Home Yankee President Visits Ban Johnson.

DETROIT, Aug. 2.-The Yankees arrived here this morning. Many of them spent the day watching the Detroit Tigers lose to the Boston world's champlons. After dropping six games in a Bill Donovan did not accompany the team to Detroit. He went to Chicago, by a score of 5 to 4 and captured the where he met Col. Ruppert and Capt. Huston, president and secretary of the club, and with Ban Johnson watched the Chicago game. The Yankes trio held an Superbas, with the great Pfeffer on the league head to give them some help at this time, as the club with its unparalleled list of injuries seems worthy of some consideration. What Ban can do for them is hard to conceive. Every club but the Athletics is in the race and the only players Mack has left on his club are McInnis and Strunk. Either or both would fit very nicely in the

when he expected every man to remain loyal to him in the club's adversity. Bill is no strict disciplinarian, as Caldneeds hitting strength on the infield more than anything else, despite the fact that four outfielders—Magee, Gilhooley, Maisel and High—are laid up. However, it is easy to see how difficult it is to get good infielders when the Browns were forced to sign the grizzled veteran Bobby Wallace for reserve after their clover shortstop Ernie Johnson was hurt.

Denovan Signs Hofman. Word was received from Donovan to-night that he had signed Circus Solly Hofman, the former Cub and Pirate outfielder and utility man, who was play-ing semi-pro ball in Chicago and run-ning a baseball school. Hofman was hitting very light when the Pirates shunted him to the Southern League several years ago, and he did not do much in the Feds. However, he may fit in with Miller and Oldring for the time being, and if he can hit any Solly may be used on the infield later on. The Yankers have three pretty good men out on option who would help the club just now-Shocker of Toronto, and players were lifted now. He shot across the outned like a streak of greased lightning and coralled the ball when it was headed for the fence at a ten miles a minute clip. On the other side of the outfield Buck Wheat made two glittering grabs. Jim Thorpe is endeavoring to convince major league managers that they made a serious mistake when they allowed him to drift downward. Jim is playing a fine game for Milwaukee in the American Association. He leads the league in base stealing and is doing good work in hitting. Recenty at Louisville a line drive from Thorpe's bat hit the left field fence, the clout being the longest drive ever made at the Colonel's park.

George Block, the veteran big league catcher, is carrying around a much labelled suit case. Within the last two weeks Block has been shifted four times. He was recently let out by St. Joseph to Weithta and a few days later Wichita sent him back to St. Joseph, whence he left for Milwaukee.
